

R. WESTLAND MARSTON

Newspaper correspondence 1877-8, 1880.

Scrapbook of newspaper cuttings of letters addressed to various newspapers by R. Westland Marston. They cover various subjects such as charities, the Church, education, road trusts, also farm and native reports from Lower Piper. 1877-78 letters are from Alvechurch, Worcestershire, U.K., or the Grammar School Alvechurch, some under the pseudonym 'Scholasticus' or 'Schoolmaster'. The 1880 ones are addressed from Lower Piper, Tasmania.

Enclosed: 'In Memoriam Service: Our late Beloved Queen'
Devonport Town Hall, 2 Feb. 1901.

ANZAC commemoration service, Pitt Street Congregational Church,
Sydney, 22 April 1923.

(quarto volume).